

MAYOR LEO P. CARLIN AND THE NEW NEWARK

A Program Sponsored by the Newark History Society

Monday, May 13, 2013 at 6:00 PM

Moderator: Walter Chambers, Assistant Director, Mayor's Commission on Group Relations, 1955-1960

Panelists: Thomas Giblin, Assemblyman, 34th District, New Jersey State Assembly

Bernard McGlone, Deputy Mayor during the Carlin Administration

Brendan O'Flaherty, Professor of Economics, Columbia University

Zemin Zhang, Trustee, Newark Preservation and Landmarks Committee

The New Jersey Historical Society

52 Park Place, Newark, New Jersey

Please RSVP by May 9 to NewarkHistorySociety@verizon.net or by calling 973.376.8273.

Open to the public at no charge. Light refreshments.

Leo P. Carlin, being sworn into office by city clerk Harry Reichenstein on July 1, 1954 as Newark's first mayor under the new city charter adopted by voters in November 1953. Courtesy of The Newark Public Library.