

NEWARK'S CELEBRATED CIDER

And The Apples That Made It Famous

MONDAY, JUNE 18,
2018 AT 6:00 PM
*A Program Sponsored
BY THE NEWARK
HISTORY SOCIETY*

PRESENTERS:

FRAN McMANUS

*Cultural Strategist, Jersey Cider Works and
New Ark Farms*

TIMOTHY CRIST

*President,
Newark History Society*

THE NEW JERSEY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

52 Park Place, Newark, New Jersey
Please RSVP by June 14 to NewarkHistorySoc@gmail.com or by calling 917.254.5028
Open to the public at no charge.
Light refreshments and cider samples.

Image of the Harrison variety of apples (scientific name: Malus domestica), with this specimen originating in Sussex, Sussex County, NJ. Courtesy: U.S. Department of Agriculture Pomological Watercolor Collection, Rare and Special Collections, National Agricultural Library